MUSICAL INTRODUCTION SURPRISES STUDENTS

Pleasant View Elementary School students will be serenaded by sound as they enter a surprise student assembly today.

Professional musicians will play refurbished instruments being donated to the school through the annual Colorado Public Radio Instrument Drive and Mr. Holland's Opus Foundation. The donated instruments include cellos, violas, violins, saxophones, flutes, clarinets, tubas, French horns, trumpets and snare drums.

“We are getting 19 extra instruments for our band and orchestra classes,” said Principal Janace Fischer. “Some of our students and families can't afford the rental fees for music instruments and this donation will open up 19 more opportunities for our fifth and sixth-grade students to join.”
