Background:

StudentCam is an annual national video documentary competition, sponsored by C-SPAN. The competition “encourages students to think about issues that affect our communities and our nation.” This year, students in grades sixth through twelfth created short video documentaries based on the theme “The Three Branches and You.”

Bell Middle School students Alexa VanSchaardenburg, Ethan Cranston, Olivia Bohl, Angelee Davis, and Jacob Fettig created two of the 150 winning videos in this year's competition. With the encouragement of their teacher, Mr. Brian VanVoorhees, Alexa and Ethan won 3rd place, and Olivia, Angelee, and Jacob won honorable mention for their entries. They competed against 2,280 documentary entries. Almost 5,000 students representing 45 states, as well as Washington D.C., and Taiwan took part in the competition.
