

MEDIA ADVISORY

Shaffer Elementary Leadership Day

When: Friday, April 29, 9:30 – 10:30 a.m.

Where: Shaffer Elementary
7961 S. Sangre de Cristo Road
Littleton, CO 80127

What: Shaffer Elementary Leadership Day to celebrate the school's participation in "The Leader in Me" program.

Background:

Shaffer Elementary will reveal their sculpture and artwork that demonstrates the school's commitment to developing leaders in their community. The sculpture is a steel beam that will be permanently installed in front of the school. It will stand approximately ten ft. tall and will state, "Leadership Starts Here". It displays Shaffer's commitment in developing a culture of leaders within the school to then ultimately create a better community around us.

Student leaders will present information about "The Leader in Me" program, which teaches students 21st century leadership and life skills to create a culture of student empowerment. Students also will share information about "The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People", a key component of the program.
