Stott Elementary in Arvada is planning a big first day. “When students arrive on the first day, they will walk a red carpet and enter through a VIP entrance. Along their red carpet walk they will be greeted by Arvada West high school cheerleaders, the marching band, and community service organizations,” explains Principal Caryn McCormick. “We are planning for this to be a huge celebration with music, lights, balloons and plenty of high-fives. The basic premise is that each and every one of our students is a VIP and we want them to know how much we have missed them over the summer.” Stott would welcome media coverage; festivities begin at 8:00 a.m., 6600 Yank Way, Arvada, CO 80003.
