Chatfield High School Students with Special Needs Support Our Troops at Christmas

When: Friday, December 2, 9:45 a.m.

Where: Chatfield High School
7227 S. Simms St.
Littleton, CO, 80127

What: The entire school and local community to fill Christmas stockings for our troops serving our country both at home and abroad.

Background:

Each year, Chatfield High School students with special needs head up a community effort to show their support for our troops. Students have spent hours decorating the stockings as well as making cards to put in each stocking before they are taken down to Ft. Carson for distribution.
